

Press Release

Wavie Kendino appointed Director of MiBank

Port Moresby 3 July 2019

The CEO of MiBank, Tony Westaway, today announced the Board decision to appoint Miss Wavie Kendino as a Director of MiBank.

Miss Kendino is a Senior Associate with Dentons based in their Port Moresby Office. Wavie has a broad range of finance, corporate and commercial law experience and has assisted in advising financial institutions, the PNG government, central bank, state owned enterprises, corporates and NGOs on a range of transactions, projects and matters. She is listed in the Chambers-Asia Pacific, 2019 legal rankings as an “Associate to Watch” and mentioned in the Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2019 Guide.

In welcoming the new Board appointment, the CEO said Miss Kendino will strengthen the Boards skills sets in addressing the critical areas of Legal Risk and Compliance.

MiBank provides services to more than 200,000 registered customers with 12 branches and more than 100 MiCash Mobile Money Agents throughout PNG. The Micro Bank is 100% Papua New Guinea owned and its target market comprises those citizens at the bottom of the economic pyramid.

Miss Kendino will join fellow Directors to the MiBank Board who include Allan Marlin (Chairman), Dame Carol Kidu, Jason Mcilvena and Paul Nindipa.

END